

Career Success Seminars for College Graduates & Early Careerists

Leathers Milligan & Associates is offering assistance to college seniors, recent college graduates approaching their first career position and early careerists exploring their first job change and new responsibilities.

Few recent graduates know exactly what careers they would like to pursue despite their newly earned degrees. In the world of work, each individual needs to take ownership for their own career path. This program will help them develop a plan for success.

Have your son or daughter join us for this informative one-day complimentary seminar designed to assist them in developing strategies for a successful job search and the start of a successful career.
